

ASD Features

Economy of Design

Less unit to handle more air within acceptable performance ranges.

Superior Performance

Sustained pattern at reduced flow... Excellent static pressure, throw and sound characteristics.

Totally removable pattern control device to allow access for installation and balancing with the option of choosing the black extruded aluminum pattern control device that allows 100° pattern adjustment and volume control in the same unit.

Design Flexibility

A wide variety of frame options to suit ceiling and wall applications... Two methods of pattern control... 1/2", 3/4" and 1" slot width.

Finish Selection

Clear Anodized or white as standard finishes... color anodizing and special color matches are available. All interiors are black as standard.

Available through twelve slots.

Single-piece construction through 96"

Factory plenums.

Multi-option plenums are available attached or unattached.

